Enrollment Management

Every admissions department has an application tool.

...But not one of those tools
can do it all.

Marketing + Admissions Stack

Siloed Tools

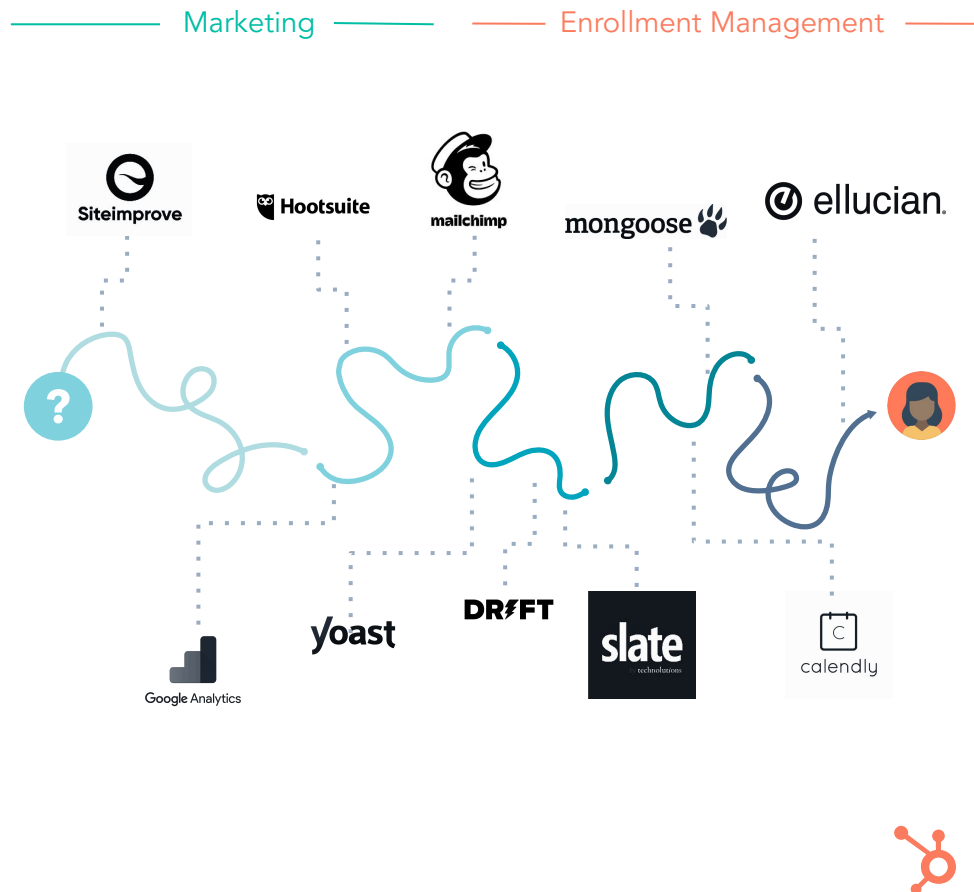

Make it harder to align

Context-Switching

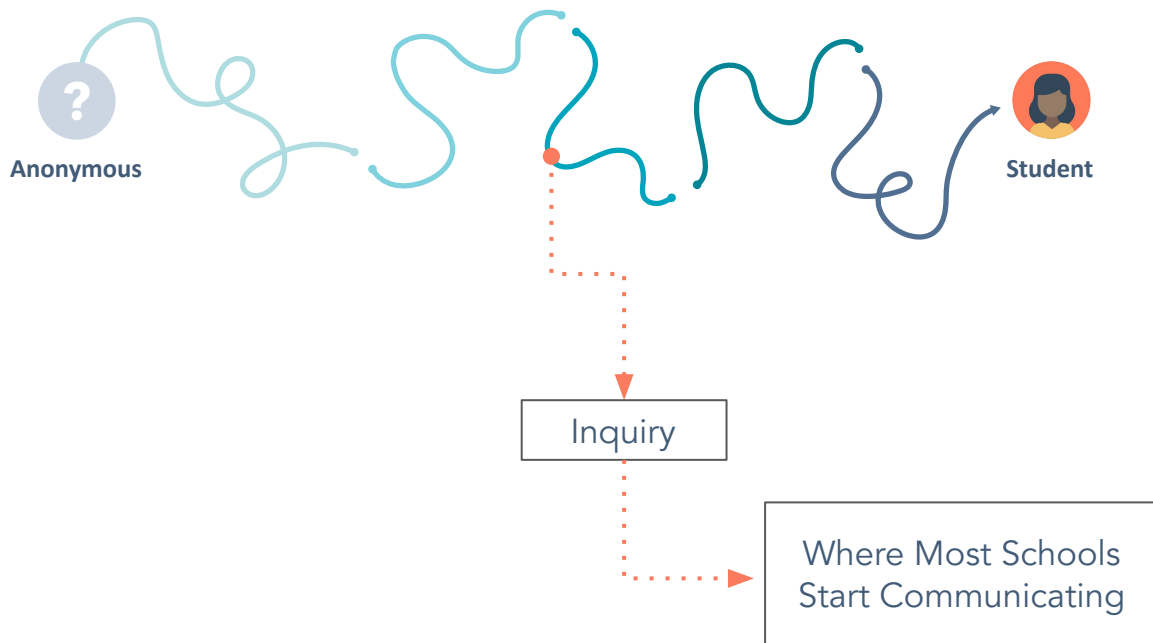

Makes it harder to adopt

An Inflexible Stack

Makes it harder to adapt

Most schools
don't know who their prospects are until they submit an inquiry form.

Most schools can't connect top-funnel marketing efforts down to actual enrolled students.

Why HubSpot

HubSpot is built differently.
